

ARA ZOHRABYAN. OUR WEAPON MUST BE OUR KNOWLEDGE, I DO NOT SEE OTHER WAYS

14.06.2014 13:24

On 14 June, the second graduates of the School of Advocates, who took the qualification examinations, were granted licenses to practice advocacy in a ceremonial way. In the board agenda of the Chamber of Advocates was included the issue to grant the licenses to practice advocacy to the candidates. The board members voted for the mentioned agenda issue unanimously as a result of which the board decided to grant the candidates licenses to practice advocacy. The ceremony of granting licenses was followed by the oath of the candidates. The advocacy community of the Republic of Armenia was supplemented by 56 advocates. Ara Zohrabyan, chairman of the RA Chamber of Advocates, congratulating his colleges, who already became advocates, noted: "Today our community is supplemented by 56 fighters. You are aware that the advocacy is very difficult as well as relations of advocate-client, advocate-court and our weapon shall be out knowledge, I do not see any other ways. Chamber of Advocates will not forgive advocates engaged in corruption activities". Simon Babayan, director of the School of Advocates also congratulates his colleges for successful graduation of the School of Advocates and supplementing the community of advocacy. "You are proposed a very difficult task by the development of the current legislation and legal systems to perform your mission valuably. Serve your skills obtained in the school of advocates to your objective. Perform your human rights activity by maintaining the principles of independence, legal order, impartiality", noted Simon Babayan. Speaking about the role and development of the School of Advocates, director of the School of Advocates stated: "it is evident that the advocacy institute occupies its place in society". Its vivid example is that the School of Advocates is technically the best equipped. State's interest is raising day by day in regard to the advocacy institution. It is very difficult to imagine legislative amendment or development without advocates". Board members of the RA Chamber of Advocates Nikolay Baghdasaryan, Karen Mezhlumyan and Martun Panosyan had a speech. The Minister of Justice Hovhannes Manukyan and deputy Minister Arsen Mkrtchyan were also present during oath ceremony
