

THE OFFICE OF REGIONAL COORDINATOR IN ARMAVIR MARZ

30.07.2014 12:03

Today on 30 July The Chairman of the Chamber of Advocates of the RA Ara Zohrabyan, The director of the School of Advocates Simon Babayan, the member of the Board Gevorg Gyozyan as well as the regional advocates have participated in the opening ceremony of the office of the regional coordinator of Armavir in Edzmiadzin. The mayor of Edzmiadzin Karen Grigoryan also participated in the opening ceremony. The mayor expressed willingness to cooperate with the advocacy community. The aim of the regional coordination is to unite each advocate who is a member of the Chamber of Advocates of the RA acting in the regions or regional towns, to raise the issues arising during their advocacy and to represent it to the Chamber of Advocates. The office is intended to coordinate the action of the advocates and to organize trainings for advocates. The advocates of Armavir Marz will have an opportunity to organize meetings with their clients in the office. Here there is a library, a hall of meetings and a room full of computers, which are free for the all advocates (including the advcoates of other marzes and the advocates of Yerevan). The regional coordinator of Armavir Marz was elected advocate Gurgen Grigoryan. The office was renovated and furnished with the united efforts of coordinator Gurgen Grigoryan and regional advocates.

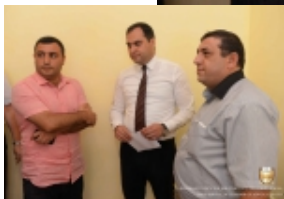

The guests had a walk tour in the office and get acquainted with the conditions.

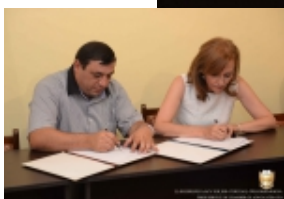

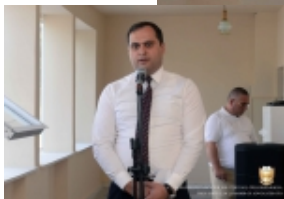

In his opening speech the Chairman Ara Zohrabyan mentioned "The chamber of Advocates of the RA has an aim to improve the condition of the regional advocates and from this perspective with the support of the regional coordinator of Armavir Marz the office is founded here in order more than 30 advocates could have their activity here. More with the perspective of the coordinator and the advocates of the Marz free legal consultations will be held for the underprivileged class";

According to Zohrabyan this custom will be continued and such kind of events will be realized in other Marzes as well.

The office of the regional coordinator of Armavir Marz also signed cooperating memoranda with 5 organizations. The regional office will provide free legal aid to the NGO "Mer tuny" and to the charitable foundation "Hayastan Manukner",

In the end the students of "Hay miasnutyan Khach@" presented their performance.
