

THE GRADUATES OF THE SCHOOL OF ADVOCATES OF RA HAS PASSED THE FIRST QUALIFICATION EXAMINATION

22.03.2016 17:06

Today on 22, March the graduates of the School of Advocates have passed qualification examination of deontology module. The examination was conducted by the Qualification Commission of the Chamber of Advocates of RA. 3 hours was given to the students for making the written task of Deontology. The participants of the examination chose their desktops randomly after which they randomly chose 4 tasks from the list of tasks. With the help of tasks the candidates were instructed to decide the existence or absence of breaches of Code of Conduct by substantiating each response. For excluding the identification between the participants and their works, after finishing the work the participant print it by two version and the bar codes were posted on them. the participants signed on one of the works and put it on the box folding four times and the other copy of the work with the bar code was given to the members of the commission. The work in which there will be some conditional signs or some other notes will be assessed 0 point. The bar codes and their passwords are created in the presence of the participants.

After the examination the works will be given to binary examiners(their identity is confidential) who will assess the works in accordance with the defined standards. After which the members of the Qualification commission will convene a session and assess each work. After the assessment of the Commission the results will be published then the box will be opened in order to reveal passwords authors. The graduates of the School of Advocates of RA will pass 2 more qualification exams.

```
BACK $(window).load(function(){ if(typeof $(".fb_comments_count").html() != "undefined" && parseInt($(".fb_comments_count").html()) != 0){ updateCommentsCount(window.location.href); } })
```