The Armenian and Iranian advocates introduced the Chambers of Advocates of both countries during a meeting today.

Iran's Ambassador to Armenia Seyed Kazem Sadjadi informed that this visit is very important for the Chamber of Advocates of Iran and that he took the opportunity to visit the Chamber of Advocates of Armenia with the Iranian delegation. "I am certain that the start of our collaboration will play a huge role for the peoples of our two countries," he said.

The parties presented their structures with general provisions and agreed to hold professional discussions tomorrow.
